

Chateau Saint Benazit AOP Madiran Rouge

In 1979, the three wine cooperatives of Plaisance, Aignan and Saint-Mont in the Gers joined forces - and initials - to set up a united group of cooperatives and vineyards under the name Plaimont.

Tasting Note

Aromatic notes of ripe red fruits; plums, raspberries, blackberries, blueberries. With herbal touches, spices and toasted wood. Vanilla, coffee, cocoa and licorice. Intense flavour and tannins, balanced acidity and with abundance of red fruits.
